

$1 A Day Charity Impact Statements

The average annual workplace giving donation breaks down to about $1 a day. That may not sound like a lot, but a little goes a long way! Learn how Colorado charities make a difference with every dollar, and share these examples in your internal communications pieces.

Animal Friends Alliance | www.savinganimalstoday.org | Animals

$1 a day enables Animal Friends Alliance to provide: four pounds of food every day for pets whose owners are experiencing financial hardship; and, surgery to spay/neuter four cats or dogs awaiting adoption.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southwest Colorado | www.bbbs.org | Children and Youth

$1 a day enables Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southwest Colorado to fund the enrollment and recruitment of one child and the mentor who will lead them toward a more successful future.

Brigit's Bounty Community Resources | www.brigitstbounty.org | Children and Youth

$1 a day enables Brigit's Bounty Community Resources to provide one week of Summer Garden Camp to a child from a low-income household in Weld County.

Child Advocates – Denver CASA | www.denvercasa.org | Children and Youth

$1 a day can train one CASA volunteer to advocate for children in the dependency and neglect court system, or support that CASA volunteer for six months as they advocate for a child, ensuring the child is in a safe and permanent home.

Crossroads School | www.crossroadslongmont.org | Education

$1 a day enables Crossroads School to provide more than three weeks of classes for a student with academic and/or behavioral challenges.

Davis Phinney Foundation for Parkinson's | www.davisphinneyfoundation.org | Medical and Health Services

$1 a day enables the Davis Phinney Foundation for Parkinson's to provide 25 Every Victory Counts® manuals to those in the Parkinson's community – those living with the disease, their care partners and their families.

Dumb Friends League | www.ddfl.org | Animals

$1 a day to the Dumb Friends League workday can make a lifesaving and life-changing difference for animals in need. It can: provide two horses recovering from abuse or neglect with food for 12 days; 25 house pets with behavior consultations at our shelters, increasing their chances of finding a new home; and, eight dogs or cats with a night of warmth, safety, care and medical needs while they wait to find their loving home.

Grand Junction Imagination Library | <https://gjimaginationlibrary.org> | Education

$1 a day enables Grand Junction Imagination Library to purchase 18 brand-new, high-quality and age-appropriate books for local children.

GRID Alternatives Colorado | <https://gridalternatives.org/colorado> | Environmental Conservation

$1 a day can enable GRID Alternatives to purchase and install a solar panel for a family that would not otherwise have the means to be a part of the renewable energy future.

Karis Community | www.kariscommunity.org | Mental Health and Counseling

$1 a day over the course of a year can enable Karis to provide 112 meals for homeless youth.

KGNU Community Radio | www.kgnu.org | Arts and Media

$1 a day to KGNU Community Radio provides resources to train, empower, and cultivate seven new on-air producers (youth and adults) to be part of shaping the media landscape. $1 a day can also help KGNU bring in-studio a new live band each week during its Kabaret program to expose listeners to new and upcoming bands from Colorado and beyond.

The Liberty School | www.thelibertyschool.org | Education

$1 a day enables the Liberty School to: replace outdated technology with two Chromebooks; and, fund one field trip for the entire student body.

STRiVE | www.strivecolorado.org | People with Disabilities

$1 a day enables STRiVE to provide more than 20 respite hours to caregivers of individuals with disabilities, to recharge and prevent burnout.

Tennyson Center for Children | www.tennysoncenter.org | Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault

$1 a day enables Tennyson Center for Children to provide every student in its Day Treatment program with breakfast and lunch during a single school day.

United Way of Mesa County | www.unitedwaymesacounty.org | Giving Federation

$1 a day enables United Way of Mesa County to provide an emergency three-day meal box for a hungry family in our community.

Weld County Legal Services, Inc. | www.weldcountylegalservices.wordpress.com | Legal Services

$1 a day enables Weld County Legal Services to schedule four free legal clinics and assist more than 100 individuals with their legal matters.