

Help Power a Bright Future

What is the Colorado Combined Campaign?

The Colorado Combined Campaign (CCC) is the annual charitable workplace giving campaign of Colorado state government employees. The state established the campaign in 1987 as a beneficial way for employees to easily and efficiently donate to a wide array of nonprofits and support their communities. Since then, state employees through the CCC have raised more than $36.2 million for Colorado charities. The average donation comes to about $1 per day.

Who can participate?

The CCC is a benefit of employment for all state workers. It was created by executive order in 1987 and has been endorsed by Colorado governors ever since. Nearly 60 state agencies and state colleges and universities—and thousands of state-employee donors—participate each year.

Who can I give to?

You can choose from around 500 Colorado charities that represent more than 20 different cause areas and every corner of the state. All have applied to receive funding and have undergone a rigorous vetting process overseen by state employees. Flip through the CCC Resource Guide & Directory on our homepage at www.coloradocombinedcampaign.org to see 2021's charities, or visit the "donor resources" section of our website for even more comprehensive listings. (There you can also find the answers to many other frequently asked questions about the CCC.)

How do I give?

It's up to you. Most employees do so through payroll contribution (a few dollars each pay period), a longstanding tradition. But you can also make a recurring donation with a credit/debit card or bank payment, or a one-time donation with check, credit/debit card or bank payment. There is no minimum donation. Signing up is easy, either online or with a paper form (see the back of this sheet).

Why should I give?

As Colorado starts to move ahead after unprecedented time, it's important that Colorado nonprofits be included in our recovery. Giving through the CCC is an easy, affordable and convenient way to show your support. Whatever matters to you or wherever you are, you can find a CCC charity to connect with. Through your donation, you help power a bright future!
